

Triantafyllopoulou Maria

SECTOR: Hotel Business - Winery

REGION: Kos, Dodecanese

Ms.Triantafyllopoulou Maria has studied Engineering Technology. She is involved with tourism since 1981 and started with the wine industry in 1996. Both activities are conducted in the island of Kos, Dodecanese. She is the Chairman of the board of IRIDANOS, which includes Thalassa Hotel, and also of INAMBELOS, which deals with winemaking in Asfendiou. She is a board member of ELTE, which includes Marmari Palace Hotel in Mastichari, and also of IAMVOS, which includes Marmari Beach Hotel.

Since 2007, she is a board member of the association “The Greek Women of Wine”, where she was at first responsible for coordinating the association’s actions, and in January of 2011 she was elected president of the board. This association was established by a group of professional women with careers in the various fields of winemaking and since 2010, it holds the presidency of the” International Women of Wine”.

Also, since 2009 she is the General Secretary of ENOANA (Aegean Association of Winemakers), an association created to specially promote the wines from the Aegean Islands.

About the Companies

The Hotel group includes 4 Hotels in the island of Kos, Anastasia Hotel, Thalassa Hotel, Marmari Beach Hotel and Marmari Palace Hotel. She has worked with the biggest travel agencies in Europe and has participated in many tourism exhibitions.

In the wine industry, she started her activity in 1996, and that initiative has contributed to the revival of the vineyard of Kos. The company has the largest, privately-owned vineyard in the Aegean, with 100 acres and a winery, 3000 m². Maria also participates in all the institutions of the wine sector, in order to promote the Greek wine.

Further Information

Maria is married to Antonis Triantafyllopoulos, Businessman and she is the mother of 4, Maria, Stavroula, Dimitra and Giorgos.

Contact Details

Email: info@inambelos.gr

Internet Site: www.inambelos.gr